WET

Toni Stern

Resumo de Wet

Toni Stern enjoyed a highly productive collaboration with the singer-songwriter Carole King. Stern wrote the lyrics for several of King's songs, most notably "It's Too Late" for the album Tapestry.

Now, through the expansive medium of poetry, she continues her spirited exploration of contemporary life.
