Resumo de A afirmação histórica dos direitos humanos - 12ª edição de 2018

Este livro é um verdadeiro clássico entre as obras de Direitos Humanos. O respeitadíssimo autor estuda as sucessivas etapas da evolução histórica dos direitos humanos, examinando grandes documentos normativos, como leis, constituições e tratados internacionais, no contexto da realidade econômica e social de sua época. São comentados documentos históricos como: a declaração de independência dos EUA; a Constituição dos EUA; as declarações de direitos da revolução francesa; a Convenção de Genebra de 1864; a Carta das Nações Unidas; a Declaração Universal dos Direitos Humanos; a Convenção Americana sobre Direitos Humanos; a Convenções sobre a Proteção do Meio Ambiente etc. Trata-se, assim, um material indispensável para a construção de uma teoria renovada dos direitos humanos, procurando-se compreender as instituições jurídicas na inesgotável complexidade social.
