

The book cover features a large, central, textured orange shape resembling a bed or a large piece of fabric. The background is a vibrant green with a pattern of stylized, rounded shapes. Various colorful elements are scattered around the orange shape, including a pink animal-like head at the top right, a dark grey rectangular object, a white and black striped object, a red animal-like head at the bottom right, and several other abstract shapes in blue, yellow, and red. The text is centered on the orange shape.
